ALLYN Z. LITE specializes in commercial and class action litigation. He was designated by the Judges of the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey as Clerk of that court from 1982 to 1986. While in that position, Mr. Lite created the Court's alternative dispute resolution program and served on and was Reporter for the committee that drafted the current Local Rules of the United States District Court for New Jersey. He was a member of the committee that drafted the new Rules of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey, and participated as one of ten original members of the United States District Court Lawyer's Advisory Committee, on which he served for 11 years. He is the author of New Jersey Federal Practice Rules (Gann Law Books, 1999), a commentary and annotations to the United States District Court's Local Rules, published annually and cited frequently by the judges of the Court. Mr. Lite also co-authored "Class Action Litigation," New Jersey Federal Civil Procedure (NJLJ 1999).

Mr. Lite served on the Lawyers' Advisory Committee for the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit from 1992 through 1994 and served as a member of the Third Circuit Task Force on Equal Treatment in The Courts, Gender Commission. He has been a Vice President of the Association of the Federal Bar of New Jersey since 1985. Mr. Lite has also been selected to participate as a mediator for the United States District Court pursuant to that Court's plan under the Civil Justice Improvements Act of 1990. As a mediator, Mr. Lite participated in environmental litigation involving the nation's largest Superfund site, and a multi-plaintiff public sector discrimination lawsuit, among others. As counsel to a plaintiff case, Mr. Lite participated in, and resolved, a class action securities litigation through mediation. In addition, Mr. Lite has been an invited guest speaker on New Jersey Network's legal program "Due Process" as well as NBC's program "Extra." Highlights of Mr. Lite's class action cases include; In Re Prudential Insurance Company of America Sales Practice Litigation, 962 F. Supp. 450 (D.N.J. 1997), aff'd 148 F.3d 283 (3d Cir.1998), cert. denied 119 S. Ct. 890 (1999) Wess v. Mercedes Benz of North America, 899 F. THE BASICS OF CRIMINAL LAW PRACTICE by Fernando Oliver, Esq.

This seminar will discuss all practical and basic aspects of building and managing a criminal law practice. The areas to be covered include developing and retaining a client base, interviewing clients and drafting retainer agreements, as well as the essentials of practicing criminal law in the municipal (town/borough), state, and federal courts of the states of New York and New Jersey, as well as servicing clients with legal problems in Puerto Rico, Dominican Republic, or Colombia. The subjects will cover everything from filing a Notice of Appearance to a Notice of Appeal.

FERNANDO OLIVER

Fernando Oliver is an experienced criminal defense and civil rights attorney with legal practices in the states of New York and New Jersey, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and the Dominican Republic, contract disputes, and immigration law. In addition to his law practice, Mr. Oliver is a tenured full professor of Business/Law at Fairleigh Dickinson University, where he also teaches Economics, American History, and Asian Studies. He is a graduate of the University of Puerto Rico's School of Business, and Brooklyn Law School, where he received his J.D. degree in 1989.

He also possesses an M.A. in Counseling Psychology and pursued doctoral studies at the City University of New York in Industrial Psychology. Mr. Oliver has also authored over 100 publications in refereed journals and newspapers, and is a Board Member of the prestigious Society of Educators and Scholars.

Mr. Oliver is presently the lead counsel in the renowned "wedding day killing" case (Bergen County, N.J.) involving the former president of Dominican-American Chamber of Commerce. He is also now litigating several well publicized police brutality cases, including the case of prominent Manhattan dentist Dr. Carlos Acosta and his fiancée, model Espana Aristy, of Queens-based psychiatrist Dr. Alfonso Vanegas, and of Manhattan businessman Humberto Taveras.

All are scheduled to be tried within the coming months. Mr. Oliver also presently represents a wide variety of leading prominent community-based institutions like the New York Federation of Taxi Drivers, Inc., the Dominican Day Parade and Festival, Colombianos Unidos, Inc., and the Dominican Medical Association.
